Hongkong, November 4, 1867. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. HIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and Chins as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females. while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will year ended 30th June last, at the rate find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restora-HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treat-

We acknowledge with thanks the receip f the numbers for the current year of "Notes and Queries," a most deserving Anglo-Chinese monthly, edited by Mr N B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of Chine and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see | that the contributors include some of the hest Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it will be of valuable assistance to all acholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in oriental antiquities. It deserves to be better known in India. From the "Straits Times," July 27, 1868. Some time ago we had occasion to remark upon the progress that Literature as represented by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has buck's red Lead, 60 bolts Canvas No. 1 again been called to the subject by the reto 6. This publication Cotton printed Handkerchiefs, 3 rolls is well printed on good paper, and in size best English Sole Leather, 80 cases Oil- and shape is very like its well-known nameaske or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very curious and usefu information regarding the language, literature, history, manners and customs of the Soups, Meats, German and Oxford Sau- Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese sages, mixed Peel, Currants etc., etc., 40 | It says a good deal for the extent and China, that such a publication as thi should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour.

The publication is altogether a very interesting one, and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support of our readers.

(From the "Lundon Examiner," May This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports of China and Japan "I is intended as guide for travellers and residents in China and Japan, and as a book of reference for mercantile men generally. It contains as account, historical and political, of all the open parts of these countries, together witl Peking, Yedo, Hongkong, and Macao. has been carefully compiled and edited by Mr N. B. Dennys; and the elaborate maps and plans, with which the work abounds considerably enhance its value. * * * We have thus given in outline some the more prominent portions of the chapter devoted to Cauton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghae, and the remaind the of the treaty ports, we can only enumerate. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and contain so much that is new to European readers respecting its history, public buil lings, and general characteristics, that we would fain transfer them to our column A complete and intelligible plan of the Im perial City and neighbourhood, gives us an accurate notion of the relative position of its divisions, streets, and places.

In the introductory chapter to the notice of the Treaty Ports of Japan will be found a succinct history of that Empire, together with remarks on its government, geography, and limits, which will be found particularly interesting as throwing a considerable ligh on a part of the world so long entirely, and still comparatively, unknown to Europeans The descriptions of Nagasaki, Yedo, Yo cohama, and the other Treaty Ports of Japan, are as elaborate and entertaining those of the Chinese ports. A copious in dex and a useful appendix o intaining many hints and much appropriate advice to travellers and others, is also included in the volume. The entire work affords a vas amount of information, pleasantly written, and we doubt not will be perused with interest by many who will never visit the Eastern seas.

THE CHINESE ON DISARMA-

among influential Chinese in the Colony with a view to petitioning the native authorities at Canton on the subject of the Viceroy's disarmament proclamation, was on her way to show the child to her mo- premises; and it was very certain that the the suspension of which has recently called forth so much discussion. appears that although the disarmament of fishing boats which was to have been. carried into effect after the 19th July, has instance, yet the Proclamation has not been formally rescinded, and that although apparently given up as an impracticable measure, the disarmament may still at any moment be put in force. As learn, the proposition about to be transmitted to Canton is that the Chinese Government shall revive its old regulations under which all junks and vessels should be compelled to register them. selves and give security for good behaviour, which, it is thought, will be a far skull. more valid safeguard against piratical conduct than a sweeping disarmament. The Chinese complain that although the pirate junks which formerly infested these waters have now been driven off by our cruizels, nevertheless the enforcement of the proclamation would be tantamount to putting a premium on piracy by encouraging isolated raids by gnake boats and other swift small craft on the fishing boats along the coast. In uiging his views for a disarmament upon the Chinese Authorities, Admiral Keppel did not perhaps take sufficiently into account the present condition of the seaboard of Kwangtung where Mandarin Authority is, as we in this Colony know to our cost, reduced to a perfect myth and although the constant presence of our cruizers has exterminated piracy in these waters and in the immediate vicinity of Hongkong, the shallows, bays, and creeks along the coast swarm with boats of a most undoubtedly piratical character. The disarmament proclamation, it therefore alleged, would amount to di arming the sheep and leaving the wolves untouched, and highly as we approved of the measure when first proposed, we must confess that the Chinese have some colour of right in their assertions. Only this other question arises: If the regis tration system be proclaimed, will there be any more hope of carrying it out than the ordinance it supercedes? All (comparatively) honest vessels would doubtless be registered. But there would be no hope of getting hold of piratical craft.

On the other hand, even the attempted enforcement of general disarmament out a proper document being liable to seizure, we are on the whole inclined to support the registration idea on the

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE FIJIS. - A Melbourne paper says :--

His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales has received a despatch from the British Consul at Fiji, stating that King Thakambau repudiates the treaty entered into with Mr Brewer on behalf of the Fiji and Melbourne Banking and Trading Company, on the grounds that he did not un! derstand the meaning of the document which he signed in presence of the agents on board the Albion. The English Consul at Fiji has joined in the protest. "It is difficult, however, to understand on what grounds the British representative objects to an arrangement which cannot but secure for British interests all the advantages the ho e Government can desire. It will be remembered that some time ago the sovereignty of these whole of these islands was offered to the British Crown and refused. Since then the shrewd, far-seeing Americans have been taking what are obviously preliminary measures to annex these most important territories to their own already unwieldly dominions, and the King has bein a sum he finds it quite impossible to repay. It needs very little historical reference to show how many instances are on record in which an obligation of this kind has been seized upon as a pretext for conquest : and everybody not entirely unaware of the steady march of American annexationism must have seen that Fiji was being inevitable absorbed into the indefinable vastness of that republic. The treaty effected between the King and the Melbourne company, therefore, seemed exactly one of those barriers which are sometimes necessary to arrest the annihilation of small nationalities. and it seems, pending further information on the subject, as if the Consul had acted somewhat precipitately in recording any protest against it.

THE VIENNA RIFLE MEETING .- Some of the speeches made at the rifle meeting at Vienna, which has been made the occasion of a grand political demonstration in favour of the union of the western half of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy (as it is now called) with Germany, are worthy of remark as illustrating the strong anti-Prussian feeling which is still prevalent among a large section of the German nation. Last Wednesday a significant speech of this kind was made by Herr Mayer, editor of the Beobachter of Stuttgart, and leader of the popular party in Würtemburg. Herr Mayer has just been elected member of the Wirtemburg Chamber, immediately after com pleting the term of six weeks' imprisonment in a fortress to which he had been condemned for publishing an article against the King of Prussia. He sharply criticised the policy of Count Bismark in 1860, declaring that it had split up the Fatherland instead of uniting it, and advocated a plan of "parliamentary federation" for the whole of Germany, by which delegations fron the North and South German Parliaments and the austrian Reichsrath would be sent to a united German Parliament for the discuss. ion of common affairs. He added that it was above all necessary that the South German State should form a Federal union. "in order to free themselves from their isolation and the political and military vassalage imposed upon them by the offensive and defensive treaties concluded secretly with Prussia." Herr Trabert, of Hannu. another influential journalist, and Herr an attempt to sileuce them was made by the Prussians who were present, the majority of the assembly seemed on the whole to approve the sentiments which had been ezpressed.

CHLORODYNE 16 THE UNIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTIONS.-Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of ChloRonynn; that the story of the Defendant, preeman, being the Inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent ospital i hysicians of London stated that ir. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and menn no other than Dr. Browne's. - See Times, July 12, 1864. The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION. This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, reli ves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results intending the use of opinm. Uld and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while Medical men extof its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following discuses: Diseases in which it is found eminently useful-Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrboea, Colics, Coughs. Asthma, Theun atism, Neuralgia, Whooping Cough,

APPENDIX.—Containing Sailing Directions for the Coast of China, and for the Japan Islands; also giving the meanings of Chinese Words occurring in Charts and Sailing Directions; and also a Table of Positions of places on the Chinese and Japanese Coasts.

The author in his Preface says :- "The tables in Chap. VII., for estimating prices, measurement of goods, exchanges, &c. have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China, Those for calculating the prices of tea in dollars or pence have been copied from the more extended tables, by the kind permis sion of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq. The last section of the same chapter, on Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick R. Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia

"The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the China Pilot.' With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coasts, the Direc. tions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of TO MEMBERS OF THE RIFLE all places that could be ascertained."

Orders may be sent through any of the China Mail Agents, or direct to CHARLES A. SAINT, (Late A. Shortrede & Co.) China Mail Office, Jan. 6, 1868.
